THE JOURNEY BEGINS

WELCOME TO FIRST BAPTIST

Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe; for our God is a consuming fire. (Hebrews 12:28-29)

How will you respond to that God this morning? The God who cannot be shaken, the God who is an all-consuming fire is at work all around us today. Let us look up together and praise His holy name in gratitude, thanking Him for another day. Let us fall down before Him in reverence and awe, praising His holy name for saving us. This time is His time. A time reserved for us to worship our King.

MARK 2:13-17

¹³ Then Jesus went out to the lakeshore again and taught the crowds that were coming to him. ¹⁴ As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at his tax collector's booth. "Follow me and be my disciple," Jesus said to him. So Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵ Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus' followers.) ¹⁶ But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with such scum?"

¹⁷ When Jesus heard this, he told them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners."

Whom Jesus Picks

Mark 2:13-17 • January 17, 2021 • Blake Coffee

*Jesus came for people who _____ their _____ for him. The call to follow Him is not about nationality, nor ethnicity, nor ideology, nor power nor status
nor achievements nor any of the other ways we tend to otherize people. It is about the heart: pure and simple.*

Jesus came for people who are willing to _____ their stale, preconceived notions of God...following Christ is not for people whose highest priority is propping up their religious institution or their own personal power agendas.

Jesus did not come for those who want to change the world through political or financial power. He came for those who are willing to give up everything for him. The cost is the same for us all: _____ .

Jesus did not just come for you. He came for you and for those whom you touch. As a Christ follower, I am not really following if I am not also _____ .

Join us as we start a new semester of Mid-Week in the City! This week we're having a conversation on unity. How to we find it and how do we keep it? How do we respond when our country is divided? How can we work alongside those who are different from us?
