

God can use even the most broken people.

We cry out, God answers, we falter,
We cry out, God answers, we falter,
We cry out, God answers, we falter,
We cry out, God answers, we falter.

— God, Our Deliverer

WELCOME TO FIRST BAPTIST

---

Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart. I will be found by you,' declares the Lord, 'and I will restore your fortunes and will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you,' declares the Lord, 'and I will bring you back to the place from where I sent you into exile.'
(Jeremiah 29:12-14)

God will listen...God will be found...God will restore...God will gather...
God will bring you back. The mercy of God is to be celebrated wildly this morning, because our Risen King has set forth a way that we might be restored from the tyranny of death. So let us burst forth with shouts of joy as a processional to His parade of glory.

1 SAMUEL 3:15-21

<sup>15</sup> Samuel stayed in bed until morning, then got up and opened the doors of the Tabernacle as usual. He was afraid to tell Eli what the Lord had said to him. <sup>16</sup> But Eli called out to him, "Samuel, my son."

"Here I am," Samuel replied.

<sup>17</sup> "What did the Lord say to you? Tell me everything. And may God strike you and even kill you if you hide anything from me!"

<sup>18</sup> So Samuel told Eli everything; he didn't hold anything back. "It is the Lord's will," Eli replied. "Let him do what he thinks best."

<sup>19</sup> As Samuel grew up, the Lord was with him, and everything Samuel said proved to be reliable. <sup>20</sup> And all Israel, from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south, knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the Lord. <sup>21</sup> The Lord continued to appear at Shiloh and gave messages to Samuel there at the Tabernacle.
